

TagIt Pro

Pick a printer. Any printer.

Looking for a high-performance tag-printing software solution? One that's flexible, with an array of import options? And that works with all Windows[®]-compatible printers?

Done, done, and done. Introducing Bell and Howell's TagIt Pro™, the proven container-tag printing resource that's now flexible enough for any mailing system. TagIt Pro prints unlimited quantities of pallet labels and barcoded tray and sack tags for virtually all mail classes. Enter the appropriate ZIP Code™ data for on-demand productivity. Batch printing is a snap, too: just import data from label image, comma-delimited, or Mail.dat files.

Windows-printer compatibility (naturally, it's also optimized for Bell and Howell's TrayMate printers) means there's no need to buy additional hardware. Just install TagIt Pro and get back to work — with improved efficiency and productivity.

More power. More convenience. More value. Choose TagIt Pro. Only from Bell and Howell.
